

Greetings from the Director

Dear Kids Co. families,

After five dedicated years filled with innovative and nurturing programming and total commitment to your children, we must say "goodbye" to our Program Director, Tonja Davis. Tonja has accepted a position with the Seattle Public Schools in the college/career preparation program. She'll work with middle and high school students.

Although Tonja found her time with us extremely rewarding, she wanted an opportunity to work with children at a different stage of their development. Tonja's last day at Kids Co. was December 29th.

While Tonja's shoes are hard to fill, I am pleased to announce that we have found someone who is extremely qualified and excited to join the Kids Co. family at South Shore. Jolenta Coleman, who goes by "Joey," is originally from the Seattle area. She recently returned from Wisconsin after completing her degree in Human Development, Family Studies and Child Development. She also worked as a site director for an afterschool program and as a youth programs coordinator.

Joey is excited to meet and get to know you in the coming months. Please join me in welcoming Joey to Kids Co. at South Shore!

Best regards,

Jennifer Cooke

Director of Child Care Operations
